HOWELL WITHDRAWS

Surprise In the Congressional Race Yesterday.

All of the Candidates Meet
Here in Their First Joint Debate.

For the first time, all five of the Democratic candidates for Congress met here yesterday in joint debate.

Mr. Howell led off and to the surprise of the large crowd withdrew from the race, saying that complications had arisen that made it necessary for him to quit the contest. He made a good humored and graceful speech, in his happiest vein, and concluded by introducing Mr. A. O. Stanley, as the first of the visiting candidates to speak.

Mr. Stanley is an orator of no mean ability. He discussed first the issues of the day and then presented his own claims in a pleasant, entertaining speech. It was plain to see that he had a good following in the crowd present.

Mr. Jno. B. Brasher, with his usual hustling qualities, was about through "billing" the audience and the crowd outside with his cards, showing his device of a horseshoe enclosing a four-leaf clover, when it came his turn to speak. What he lacks in oratory he makes up in magnetism and it was not very long ~~when~~ he had a good part of the audience going his way.

He dwelt upon the fact that he was born in this county, and that he was allied to Christian by district ties and neighborly ties that the other candidates could not claim.

He offered his party services, by which he more than any other man in his county, had rescued Hopkins from Republicanism and elected a Christian county man Senator in 1897. His appeal was strong from several points of view and it is safe to say that the campaign opens in this county with Brasher well in the lead of the other candidates.

He was followed by Senator Geo. W. Hickman, of McLean county, who is also a speaker of much force and eloquence. He discussed his party services as a member of the House and Senate and made a strong appeal for a favorable consideration of his claims. Several influential politicians of the county have already declared themselves for him.

Judge D. P. Taylor, of Daviess county, for the first time addressed a Christian county audience. He is confessedly one of the strongest men in the race and his speech was one that appealed strongly to the voter. He has a good following in this county and will increase his popularity as the canvass progresses. It was the general opinion that Judge Taylor would prove himself one of the leading candidates in every respect.

PEACE DECLARED.

Plucky Boers Give Up Their Hopeless Struggle.

England Makes Concession To End the War Before Edward's Coronation.

London, June 2.—The Boers surrendered to the British at Pretoria Saturday night. The terms were signed by the Boer representatives and Lords Milner and Kitchener. The news was cabled to London yesterday by Lord Kitchener, and was received there with great rejoicing. No official statement of the terms of the surrender has been given out, but W. T. Stead says the capitulation was not unconditional, and that the Boers will receive a large indemnity with which to rebuild their homes. The Boer war began October 11, 1899. It has cost Great Britain the lives of 22,602 soldiers, besides 73,983 wounded and invalided home, and nearly $1,000,000,000.

An official cablegram from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 p. m., says:

"A document containing terms of surrender was signed here this evening at 10:30 o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as Lord Milner (the British High Commissioner in South Africa) and myself." This announcement had been anticipated for several days, and was definitely forecast in these dispatches, but its receipt Sunday afternoon took the nation by surprise, as everybody had confidently believed that the House of Commons would hear the first news to day. The edge of the anticipation with which Great Britain awaited the promised statement in the House of Commons from Mr. Balfour, the Government leader, was still further dulled by the following message from King Edward to his people, which was issued after midnight:

"The King has received the welcome news of the cessation of hostilities in South Africa with infinite satisfaction, and His Majesty trusts that peace may speedily be followed by the restoration of prosperity in his dominions, and that the feelings necessarily engendered by war will give place to earnest co-operation on the part of His Majesty's South African subjects in promoting the welfare of their common country."

How great King Edward's insistence that peace in South Africa be secured prior to his coronation influenced the present agreement will probably not be known until the private memoirs of the present regime are given to the public.

The second trial in Nashville resulted in a hung jury.

at Columbia has conferred upon

Austin L. Peay, the young Clarksville lawyer, is a candidate for Speaker of the next House of Delegates.

Mr. Chappell Cory contributes an thinks the United States should conquer and hold the Philippines.

The vote in the First district was 13,608, a good deal larger than ex pected. Ollie James' majority was 3,002. Crossland got only 7 votes in Crittenden county.

An Iowa petition signed by 20, 000 school children has been sent to President Roosevelt, asking the English, through this government, to quit killing Boer children in South Africa.

President Roosevelt will appoint
Senator Jno. L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, who deserted the Dem election as Senator, to the vacancy on the Court of Claims bench. Mc will expire next March.

The Breckinridge News, that at one time became almost Repub lican in its politics, shows signs of getting back home with the rest of the boys. Bro. Babbage has this paragraph on "harmony":

"Right here in Breckinridge county you will find the real stuff,
a real policy and lots of harmony,
and that is because the state of affairs for an old timer to talk up

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales, and bleeds; it itches, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes so great that application of ointments resorted to will mitigate, but cannot cure.

It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is about an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's PILLS are the best cathartics. Price 25 cents

The candidacy of Col. E. H.
Taylor, the widely known Frank fort distiller, for Governor, will make a considerable change in the gubernatorial line-up. There are already four formally announced candidates—Black, Breckenridge, Hendrick and Taylor. Beckham would like to get into the race, but his candidacy will probably de pend on the election of Democratic successors to Judges DuRelle and Guffy next year.

The constitutional question of his eligibility would have to be passed upon by the Court of Appeals and with that tribunal Republican his Repub lican opponent would be sure to be seated. But the indications now are that Beckham could develop go considerable strength outside of the Fourth district.

CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

Let the Dyspeptic Class to Think of His Stomach as an Enemy.

A prominent United States senator met a friend whom he had not seen for some time. "Why, you have lost a great deal of flesh and are looking much thinner than I ever saw you before," said the senator. "What is the matter?" The friend explained that for a long time he had suffered from a severe chronic case of dyspepsia which kept him miserable and in pain a great deal of the time. "Now, let me tell you something," began the senator. "I suffered terribly from that same trouble for many years, and I was treated by all sorts of doctors, without the slightest benefit. I grew thinner and weaker all the time and said that I was going down hill fast. I had to cease to care whether I ate at all and had no appetite for anything. I simply ate something occasionally merely to keep myself together. In reading some newspaper advertisements I saw the name of a man who healed by 'magic.' Of course, it appealed to my mind as being a fake, and I had no confidence in the man or his treatment. I read the advertisement again next day and threw the paper away without paying attention. But that advertisement bobbed in front of me every day when I picked up the paper. My wife read it also, and said: 'Suppose we go out to see this man some time.' I told her we would do so when congress adjourned, more out of curiosity than anything else. I may add that the man was afterward excluded from using the mails on the ground of being a fraud. The magic healer heard my statement, listened carefully and asked me how I made a speech in the senate, whether offhand or prepared. I told him I spoke extemporaneously, without a note of any kind. 'How are you able to do this?' he asked. I answered, readily, that it was because I knew my subject and had confidence in my ability to speak and say what I wanted. 'You had confidence then?' he queried. 'What don't you have confidence in your stomach, then? Why do you treat it as an open enemy, dreading to eat anything for fear it will hurt you, and hating the looks of food? Why don't you treat your stomach kindly and regard it as your friend, capable of helping you out in distress?' Just try this plan. Whatever you want to eat take with confidence that your stomach will handle it. If your mouth waters for a certain thing, eat that thing and rest assured that nature will supply the fluids required to digest it. Don't eat what you don't care for and don't burden your friend with something that your mind and your taste have no use for. Now, remember this and follow the directions. That was all he said. I was impressed and went away with the feeling that there was something in what was said. That day I hungered for sweet things and I ate them in moderation. I suffered no trouble, and from that day to this I have improved in health and have had no trouble with my stomach. My mind has ceased to regard the stomach as an enemy of my body and thinks of it kindly and considerately."—Washington Star.

NOT NECESSARY.

The Dog-License the Englishmen Refuse to Renew.

In a certain Midland police court no long ago an ironworker appeared to answer a charge of keeping a dog without a license.

The defendant was disposed to interrupt the police-constable while that worthy was giving his evidence, but on being pulled up by the magistrate he desisted, as he put it, "to give 'em plenty o' rope."

At length his chance came. The magistrate's clerk turned to him and asked:

"Do you wish the court to understand that you refuse to renew your dog license?"

"Yes, but—"

"We want no 'buts.' Renew the license or you will be fined. You know it has expired?"

"Yes, but—"

"But what?"

"So has the dog! Shall I be fined for that, too, unless I renew him?"

The court thought not, and as the animal had been dead six months the case was dismissed.—London Times.

Voice Traveling.

Eighteen miles is said to be the longest distance on record at which a man's voice has been heard. This occurred in the Grand canyon in Colorado, where one man shouting the name "Bob" at one end, his voice was plainly heard at the other end, which is 18 miles away. Dr. Young records that at Gibraltar the human voice has been heard a distance of ten miles.

YOUTHFUL BRIDES.

Logan County Farmers Elope With Young Girls.

The Russellville Herald-Ledger says: Friday evening about 2:30, two couples, William Robinson, aged 40, and Miss Mattie Leitchford, 16, and John Mayes, 23, and a Miss Robertson, 15, of the Mud river vicinity, drove to the residence of Rev. T. M. Jackson, and engaged his services to unite themselves in the holy bonds of matrimony, and leaving their would-be brides in his hands at the residence, proceeded to the clerk's office and applied for license to marry. On account of the youthfulness of the girls they were refused.

Somewhat discouraged, but not to be outdone, they left in their buggies about 8 o'clock for Springfield, Tenn., where they were granted the licenses and were married, returning to this city Saturday evening feeling somewhat fatigued from their long drive, but with a happy and victorious smile on their faces.

Don't Wait Until Fall TO BEGIN TO BUILD.

It takes a month or more to get the plan question settled, and the best houses can not be built in a hurry. A house built in the winter is seldom satisfactory, and a fall beginning means a winter ending. Furthermore, prices on all materials are generally higher in the fall. Then too, most people wait till then to build, and work brings a higher price when there is a great deal of it. Hence you have everything to gain and nothing to lose by building in the Spring and Summer.

A Beautiful Display!

Geo. W. Young's Show-Window.

An artistic fac-simile in a standard soap of the United States Building at the St. Louis World's Fair, 1903, in one of Young's show-windows on Main street, is presented for the first time to-day, one of the most novel and attractive special displays ever seen in America. The display is a miniature fac-simile of the United State's Building at the St. Louis World's Fair, the material used in its construction being a high-class medicated toilet article, handled here exclusively by Geo. W. Young. The view of this building given by this admirable and artistic soap display is a front one showing the mammoth Arch of Triumph with its ornamental columns, and above this a representation of the Goddess of Liberty on the Chariot of Progress. The vast halls flanked with smaller halls running through the center of the building and reaching to the dome, which is crowned with the American Eagle with outstretched pinions, is shown with wonderful exactness, as are all the various intricacies of architecture and adornment which distinguished this beautiful structure. The interior arrangement of reception and reading rooms, offices, bureau, etc., are all preserved in this miniature production, and in a manner which reflects credit on the designer. The structure occupies the whole space of the window, and stands upon a ground work of dyed sawdust, representing the greenest and most carefully kept lawn. In height it is fully ten feet, and surrounded as it is by artistically draped American flags, forms a most beautiful picture. It is the cynosure of all eyes on Main street to-day. Regular price 10c per cake but for a limited time 3 cakes go for ten cents.

ROYAL CUTICLE SOAP,
